

More than one million
job openings are expected in B.C. by 2020

How are you going to land
the job you want?

- Job Search Resources
- Personal Employment Planning
- Workshops and Training
- Specialized Services

WorkBC
Employment Services Centre

The Employment Program of British Columbia is funded by the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.

1511 3rd Avenue
Prince George, BC V2L 3G3
(250) 596-2517

People for Jobs.
Jobs for People.

How are you going to land the job you want? Start Here.

Prince George Employment Service can help you!

If you are eligible to work in B.C. visit Prince George Employment Service for information, services and programs to help you start – and succeed – in your job search. With special resources for:

- New Canadians
- People who speak English as a second language
- Aboriginal people
- People with disabilities
- People living in rural or remote areas
- Youth

We provide information, services, programs and supports to help you. Our trained staff will help you find the services you need to start and succeed in your job search, including:

- JOB SEARCH RESOURCES
- PERSONAL EMPLOYMENT PLANNING
- WORKSHOPS AND TRAINING
- SPECIALIZED SERVICES

JOB SEARCH RESOURCES

We have FREE tools and resources available to help with your job search, including:

- Computer workstations
- Public telephones
- Fax machine
- Photocopy services

PERSONAL EMPLOYMENT PLANNING

If you require assistance, our professional Employment Centre Advisors can help build your personal employment plan to expedite your attachment to work.

WORKSHOPS AND TRAINING

Prince George Employment Service has workshops for people who want to learn more about finding a job and starting work. We have both short and long-term training programs, depending on your needs and the skills you require. Visit us at 1511- 3rd Avenue, Prince George and ask an Employment Centre Advisor which workshops or training will help you most.

SPECIALIZED SERVICES

We offer special resources for immigrants, youth, older workers, Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, people who live in remote areas, or anyone having trouble finding work for any reason. Visit us and we'll find the help you need.

Over the next decade, there will be an estimated 1.1 million job openings in the province. The goal is to make use of every opportunity to build a workforce with more skills, and matching those skills with the demand from employers in communities across the province.

SOURCE: SKILLS FOR GROWTH, BC'S LABOUR MARKET STRATEGY TO 2020